

Infant Mortality Risk Assessment Report

Report Generated: June 16, 2026 at 06:33 PM

Risk Assessment Summary

Risk Classification	Risk Score	Model Confidence
Low Risk	37%	63.0%

Interpretation:

The assessment indicates high risk factors. Medical consultation with a qualified healthcare professional is strongly advised.

Key Risk Factors

Factor	Impact	Direction
Birth Type	0.979	↑ Increased
Birth Interval	0.752	↑ Increased
Size At Birth	0.261	↑ Increased
Birth Order	0.248	↓ Reduced
Household Size	0.211	↑ Increased

Recommended Care Measures

- Seek immediate consultation with a qualified healthcare professional
- Prefer institutional delivery and neonatal care facilities
- Ensure frequent medical check-ups for mother and infant
- Monitor the infant closely for early signs of illness
- Address maternal health issues such as anemia or infections
- Ensure proper nutrition for both mother and child
- Maintain strict hygiene and sanitation in the living environment
- Ensure emergency medical services are accessible
- Educate caregivers on newborn care and danger signs

DISCLAIMER:

These recommendations and risk assessments are for educational purposes only and do not replace professional medical advice. Always consult with qualified healthcare professionals for medical decisions and treatment plans.