

Infant Mortality Risk Assessment Report

Report Generated: June 17, 2026 at 12:42 AM

Risk Assessment Summary

Risk Classification	Risk Score	Model Confidence
Moderate Risk	7%	28.1%

Interpretation:

The assessment indicates moderate risk factors. Enhanced monitoring and medical consultation are recommended to optimize care.

Key Risk Factors

Factor	Impact	Direction
Birth Interval	1.325	↑ Increased
Birth Type	0.869	↑ Increased
Child Gender	0.506	↓ Reduced
ANC Visits	0.382	↓ Reduced
m19	0.309	↓ Reduced

Recommended Care Measures

- Schedule regular antenatal and postnatal medical consultations
- Ensure frequent health check-ups for both mother and infant
- Improve nutrition and dietary practices for mother and child
- Arrange institutional delivery at a well-equipped facility
- Increase frequency of antenatal care visits
- Monitor for early warning signs and seek immediate care if needed
- Improve household hygiene and sanitation practices
- Ensure proper immunization schedule for the child
- Educate caregivers on basic newborn care and health precautions

DISCLAIMER:

These recommendations and risk assessments are for educational purposes only and do not replace professional medical advice. Always consult with qualified healthcare professionals for medical decisions and treatment plans.